

COXIC: Complexity OXford Imperial College

Organizers

T. Alarcon

N. Jones

R. Lambiotte

The aim of this event is to gather researchers from Oxford and Imperial College interested in Complexity. The workshop will consist of short talks given by young researchers (PhD students and post-docs) and of informal discussions.

Program

12am-1pm: picnic and discussions (bring your food!)

1pm-2.30pm: First session

2.30pm-3.30pm: Coffee Break

3.30pm-5pm: Second session

April 21 2009

Institute for Mathematical Sciences

Prince's Gate 53, SW7 2PG London

More info on <http://www.lambiotte.be/coxic.html>

The workshop is free of charge, but people are invited to send an email to r.lambiotte@imperial.ac.uk to confirm their participation

